Business Value and Project Management

In an era of thriving businesses, both small and large, it is crucial to possess an in-depth understanding of the minutiae of the building blocks of a successful organization. The Business Value and Project Management Specialization is structured to provide a well-rounded knowledge of three key facets of business – Financial Accounting and Managing Projects and Organizations. Specifically, the learner can: 1) understand the basics of how to analyze balance sheet and cash flow statements 2) understand how accrual accounting and fundamental accounting concepts work 3) develop strategies to facilitate organizational growth 4) develop solutions to common managerial challenges 5) explore a plethora of project planning and execution models and understand when each is most effective.
